It Won't Take Us Far

Words and Music by Lisa Witty

Am C
1. She walks head low
G Fmaj7
she's hiding in plain sight won't even look at herself passing by a window.
Am C G Fmaj7
From the corner of her eye she sees who she would be if only free from
Am C G Fmaj7
mental chains they remind her, her words that bind her down.

C G Am7
CHORUS: Why is it so easy to love somebody else?
F
Not ourselves.
C G
Why so hard on our hearts?
Am F Am
forever beating knowing it won't take us far.

Am C
2. It's safer in her world
G Fmaj7 Am
wearin' silent shoes knowing where she stands singin' only blues.
C G F
In her night thorn birds take flight towards impending doom.
Am C G Fmaj7
Mental chains they remind her, her words that bind her down. (Chorus)

Am Em
BRIDGE: She's tripping over fiction Am Em
swallowing her lies.
Am Em
A bitter contradiction

she's living as she dies.

www.lisawitty.com
Copyright © 2002 Lisa Witty. All Rights Reserved.